Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes. The file comprises a number of thumbnail images taken from a video, and focuses on young teenage girls undressing and engaging in sexual activity. The file is clearly constructed for the sexual arousal and gratification of adults. The effect is to affirm a sexual interest in girls and to encourage their sexual exploitation. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention and is a reasonable limitation on the right to freedom of expression. The classification reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
